California Analytics is the designated bill payment vendor responsible for receiving and recording fund deposits/contributions and facilitating the transfer of POSITIVITI funds to World Workforce International for further allocation to the international microloan lending program.

Positiviti Lending is an International Peer-to-Peer Micro Lending Platform. Participation in Positiviti Lending is subject to our terms and conditions. Lender Members are advised to read and understand before engaging with our platform. Positiviti is a sponsored program within World Workforce International Inc., a 501(c)(5) nonprofit organization's framework. Positiviti Lending is not a bank, is not FDIC insured, and does not guarantee returns. While the program aims to facilitate profitable lending, potential principal loss can occur due to inherent risks.
